

New York, June 17.
The offerings for the three hundred thousand dollar loan, of the Illinois Central Railway Company, amounted in the whole to four millions, nine hundred and thirty thousand dollars, at rates ranging from four to five and a half per cent. premium.

The New York Tribune asks the Washington Union, which has been wasting a column in demonstrating the Democracy and diplomacy of August Belmont:
"Suppose Mr. Belmont had given or spent no money to secure Pierce's election do you think he would have been this year appointed a Charge d'Affairs?—Now just face the music!"

BILLY DALE.
'Twas a calm still night, and the moon's pale light,
When soft o'er hill and vale,
Shone friends with grief stood around the death bed
Of my poor little Billy Dale.
Oh! Lilly, sweet Lilly, dear little green,
Now the wild rose blossoms o'er her little grave.
'Neath the trees in the flow'ry vale.
Her cheeks that once glowed, with the rose tint of health,
By the hand of disease had turned pale,
And the death damp lay on the pure white brow.
Of my poor little Billy Dale.
Oh! Lilly, sweet Lilly, dear little green,
Now the wild rose blossoms o'er her little grave.
'Neath the trees in the flow'ry vale.

CHEERY FACTORIAL.—We have departed from our usual rule in regard to the advertising of Medicine, in admitting the notice of the Cherry Factorial to our columns. It is not a patent medicine, but one of the contents of which, are well known to the medical profession, and which has proved highly beneficial in the case of a number of our acquaintances, who were seriously afflicted with pulmonary complaints. Some of our most skillful and eminent physicians recommend it to their patients in their regular practice, and we feel that we are conferring a favor upon the public by making known its virtues.

ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER! PREPARED BY THE Dr. J. C. Williams. A great Dyspeptic Cure, prepared from the stomach of the Great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton, M. D., No. 11 North Eighth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. This is a truly wonderful remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Constipation, and Debility, which will alter Nature's own method, by Nature's own agent, the Gastric Juice. See Advertisement in another column.

An ounce of fact is worth a pound of theory; and the swarm of conclusive facts that cluster round this inimitable preparation, Houghton's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia, attest its value as a tonic and restorative, are such as would prevent incredulity itself from questioning its efficacy. In all cases of disease of stomach, whether acute or chronic, it may be recommended for its soothing, cordial, and renovating influence. Dyspepsia, heartburn, loss of appetite, nausea, nervous tremors, relaxation, debility, &c., are relieved; by the Bitters in a very short space of time; and a benevolence in their use never fails to bring a thorough cure.
